CARAT

The weight of a diamond is expressed in carats. 1 ct = 0,2 gram

COLOUR

Colour is graded by comparison to masterstones under standardized artificial light, equivalent to Northern daylight.

CLARITY

A diamond is called "internally flawless" if, after examination by an experienced grader with a loupe 10x under normal light conditions, it has been found free of internal characteristics. The other clarity grades are determined by the size, position, brightness and number of internal characteristics. External characteristics and structure phenomena can be mentioned under 'identification marks' or 'comments'. The lowest clarity grades on the scale (indicated by I for Included) refer to inclusions that can be seen by an experienced grader with the naked eye.

“We most honor the God who created us and the Lord Jesus who redeemed us when we ascribe the right value to Him. He is worth our praise, adoration and exaltation.” - Jack Hayford

<sup>14</sup> Now the Spirit of the LORD had departed from Saul, and an evil spirit from the LORD tormented him. <sup>15</sup> Saul's attendants said to him, "See, an evil spirit from God is tormenting you. <sup>16</sup> Let our lord command his servants here to search for someone who can play the lyre. He will play when the evil spirit from God comes on you, and you will feel better." <sup>17</sup> So Saul said to his attendants, "Find someone who plays well and bring him to me." <sup>18</sup> One of the servants answered, "I have seen a son of Jesse of Bethlehem who knows how to play the lyre. He is a brave man and a warrior. He speaks well and is a fine-looking man. And the LORD is with him."

1 Samuel 16:14-23 (NIV)

<sup>19</sup> Then Saul sent messengers to Jesse and said, “Send me your son David, who is with the sheep.” <sup>20</sup> So Jesse took a donkey loaded with bread, a skin of wine and a young goat and sent them with his son David to Saul. <sup>21</sup> David came to Saul and entered his service. Saul liked him very much, and David became one of his armor-bearers. <sup>22</sup> Then Saul sent word to Jesse, saying, “Allow David to remain in my service, for I am pleased with him.” <sup>23</sup> Whenever the spirit from God came on Saul, David would take up his lyre and play. Then relief would come to Saul; he would feel better, and the evil spirit would leave him.

1 Samuel 16:14-23 (NIV)

<sup>18</sup> Do not get drunk on wine, which leads to debauchery. Instead, be filled with the Spirit, <sup>19</sup> speaking to one another with psalms, hymns, and songs from the Spirit. Sing and make music from your heart to the Lord, <sup>20</sup> always giving thanks to God the Father for everything, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

“Interpret the darker passage with the more clear.” - Augustine

<sup>21</sup> For although they knew God, they neither glorified him as God nor gave thanks to him, but their thinking became futile and their foolish hearts were darkened... <sup>24</sup> Therefore God gave them over in the sinful desires of their hearts to sexual impurity for the degrading of their bodies with one another. <sup>25</sup> They exchanged the truth about God for a lie, and worshiped and served created things rather than the Creator—who is forever praised. Amen. <sup>26</sup> Because of this, God gave them over to shameful lusts... <sup>28</sup> Furthermore, just as they did not think it worthwhile to retain the knowledge of God, so God gave them over to a depraved mind, so that they do what ought not to be done.

Romans 1:21, 24-26, 28 (NIV)

WORSHIP IS A WEAPON

“The weight of His glory, exalted in worshiping the Father and magnifying His Son in the power of the Holy Spirit:

- impacts, reshapes, and alters our character and conduct...
- liberates, releases, and loosens us from the hold of sin and self...
- unleashes the ministry-life of Jesus Christ in our daily lives.”
