<sup>31</sup> Meanwhile the disciples were urging him, saying, “Rabbi, eat.”
<sup>32</sup> But he said to them, “I have food to eat that you do not know about.”
<sup>33</sup> So the disciples said to one another, “Has anyone brought him something to eat?”
<sup>34</sup> Jesus said to them, “My food is to do the will of him who sent me and to accomplish his work.”
<sup>35</sup> Do you not say, ‘There are yet four months, then comes the harvest’? Look, I tell you, lift up your eyes, and see that the fields are white for harvest.

John 4:31-38 (ESV)

<sup>36</sup> Already the one who reaps is receiving wages and gathering fruit for eternal life, so that sower and reaper may rejoice together. <sup>37</sup> For here the saying holds true, ‘One sows and another reaps.’ <sup>38</sup> I sent you to reap that for which you did not labor. Others have labored, and you have entered into their labor.”

<sup>27</sup> Why do you complain, Jacob? Why do you say, Israel, “My way is hidden from the LORD; my cause is disregarded by my God”?

<sup>28</sup> Do you not know? Have you not heard? The LORD is the everlasting God, the Creator of the ends of the earth. He will not grow tired or weary, and his understanding no one can fathom. <sup>29</sup> He gives strength to the weary and increases the power of the weak.

Isaiah 40:27-31 (NIV)
