

BECOMING

Becoming
As We Love
With God's Heart

⁸Be under no obligation to no one – the only obligation you have is to love another. Whoever does this has obeyed the law. ⁹The commandments, “Do not commit adultery; do not commit murder; do not steal; do not desire what belongs to someone else” – all these, and any others besides, are summed up in the one command, “Love your neighbor as you love yourself.” ¹⁰If you love others, you will never do them wrong; to love, then, is to obey the whole law.

Romans 13:8-10 (GNT)

³³ Jesus told them still another parable: “The Kingdom of Heaven is like this. A woman takes some yeast and mixes it with a bushel of flour until the whole batch of dough rises.”

Matthew 13:33 (GNT)

1. Love is our obligation and main motivation.
2. Love never says “You owe me.” Love always says “I owe you.”
3. Love is an uplifting influence in our world.

“Jesus depicted what happens when a man responds directly to human need across the barriers of class, race, and condition. Every man is potentially every other man’s neighbor. Neighborliness is non spatial; it is qualitative. A man must love his neighbor directly, clearly, permitting no barriers between.”

¹⁸My children, our love should not just be words and talk; it must be true love, which shows itself in action.
