¹Not long afterward another large crowd came together. When the people had nothing left to eat, Jesus called the disciples to him and said, ²“I feel sorry for these people, because they have been with me for three days and now have nothing to eat. ³If I send them home without feeding them, they will faint as they go, because some of them have come a long way.”

Mark 8:1-10 (GNT)

⁴His disciples asked him, “Where in this desert can anyone find enough food to feed all these people?” ⁵“How much bread do you have?” Jesus asked. “Seven loaves,” they answered. ⁶He ordered the crowd to sit down on the ground. Then he took the seven loaves, gave thanks to God, broke them, and gave them to his disciples to distribute to the crowd; and the disciples did so. ⁷They also had a few small fish. Jesus gave thanks for these and told the disciples to distribute them too.

Mark 8:1-10 (GNT)

⁸Everybody ate and had enough—there were about four thousand people. ⁹Then the disciples took up seven baskets full of pieces left over. Jesus sent the people away ¹⁰and at once got into a boat with his disciples and went to the district of Dalmanutha.

Mark 8:1-10 (GNT)

PROVISION IS ALWAYS POSSIBLE

“Man’s extremity is God’s opportunity.”

J.B. Phillips

When we lack faith for our provision,
we can become:

A. Vulnerable to Secular Solutions

B. Vulnerable to Demonic Suggestions

God's provision comes in many forms:

A. Solution

B. Resolution

C. Multiplied Resources

Get Clear

There was a man in civilian clothes who during the American Revolution rode past a group of soldiers repairing a small defensive barrier. Their leader was shouting instructions, but making no attempt to help them. Asked why by the rider, he retorted with great dignity, “Sir, I am a corporal!”

The stranger dismounted and proceeded to help the exhausted soldiers. The job done, he turned to the corporal and said, “Mr. Corporal, next time you have a job like this and not enough men to do it, go to your commander-in-chief, and I will come and help you again.”

It was none other than George Washington.

Start With An Offering

¹⁴Let the giving of thanks be your sacrifice to God, and give the Almighty all that you promised. ¹⁵Call to me when trouble comes; I will save you, and you will praise me.

Psalms 50:14-15 (GNT)

Let us, then, always offer praise to God as our sacrifice through Jesus, which is the offering presented by lips that confess him as Lord.

Hebrews 13:15 (NIV)

What to do with 50k inheritance?

Planning

My grandfather passed away last year. I inherited 50k from his estate. I know I most likely want to put the money towards debt, but I am unsure exactly how to allocate the funds. I was thinking of paying off my highest interest debt first, adding a bit to my emergency fund, and then putting the rest towards student loans. Is this the right move?

Here is a breakdown of my debt:

1. Two credit cards, total debt between the two: $13,000 at 14.5%. (I am currently working towards aggressively paying this down and am on track to pay off all of this by the end of the year if I stick with my current budget.)
2. Student Loans. $95,214.80. I finished my PhD in 2019 - this is a cumulative total for my loans across my years of schooling. I have already paid $10k towards my loans during the pandemic and plan to slowly up my payments once my higher interest debt is more in check. Breakdown of the individual loans:

Debt $3500 on car or credit card

3500 bonus coming in. Do I apply it to credit card debt at 20% or a 2016 rav 4 with 310,000km on it? 6k left on that loan.

Logic says highest interest rate.. just curious if I'm missing anything regarding the car etc
